

Interview

David Flower - Director Sasa Music

David flowers has been a musician in its youth and worked for World circuit and Globestyle as tour manager, before he started his own company SASA Music on 1990, a live music agency that produces tours for some of the biggest names in international world and roots music. Buena Vista Social Club Tinariwen are few of them.

Interview will be soon added